Responsive Call to Worship:

Leader: With all your strength, sing aloud to the Lord, who has brought you here and blessed you.

People: Our voices shall shout forth praise and thanksgiving to God.

Leader: With all your heart reach out in service to those in need, remembering God's mercy in your own life.

People: Our lives shall be witnesses to the love of God which has been lavished upon us.

Leader: Come, let us worship the Lord with great joy!

People: Let us bring all that we have and all that we are to God in gratitude. Amen.

*Congregational Singing: Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing #68

*Unison Invocation

Through the ages, O God, you have called us to follow. You led us to freedom, to hope and peace. This morning your voice sounds into our lives again, calling us to your healing care, to your spacious freedom, to your giving humility. We come to rest and be fed. Lead us to your freeing and healing love, that we might serve you joyfully in this world that you have loaned to us. Feed us now, God of our strength. We ask in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Litany:

Leader: From the troubles of the world and of the nation we come to you,
O Lord.

People: Lord, help us to be agents of peace and hope in these troubled times.

Leader: From the strife of city and village, from the politics of deception and fear, we come to you, O Lord.

People: Lord, help us to discern your love and reconciliation for all people.

Leader: From the struggles within families and individuals as they strive for healing, we come to you, O Lord.

People: Lord, help us to listen to your healing words of love and seek ways of peace.

Leader: From illness and alienation, from desperation and loneliness, O Lord, we come to you.

People: Lord, bring us your peace and hope; strengthen us to be your people in loving service to you by serving others.

Leader: Lord, we cast all our cares upon you.

People: We lay our burdens down at your feet.
