Items for Christian Clark and his Shipmates

Christian and his shipmates expressed their gratitude for the package and cards the church sent in July.

We are once again collecting to send another package. We still have many snacks and goodies left over that didn't fit in the last package. If you would like to write a card or contribute money, please let Cara know. Money contributions will go toward a pair of headphones Christian requested, shipping costs and filling in any small items that will fill space in the box. There are new cards in the back of the church you can fill out to send along with the package.
